Sydney, Monday 16 January 2012

Andrew McNeil, Managing Director of Sydney-based Yarmouth Group has today announced that Yarmouth will renew its Partnership with the Greater Western Sydney Giants for the 2012 AFL premierships season.

In making the announcement Mr McNeil stated how proud Yarmouth Group and its staff and partners are in supporting AFL Football in Western Sydney. "Yarmouth is thrilled to support the Giants not only in their goals of pursuing the ultimate success within the premier national football code but also supporting the community goals that GWS are achieving."

Since their inception, the Giants have been part of the local community in Greater Western Sydney, working with key community partners and local football communities to deliver tangible outcomes in four key areas – health, harmony, education and employment.

Mr McNeil said "the Giants have a clear vision to be a truly community based club. Through the development of key community partnerships and programs in health, harmony, education and employment, the Giants are demonstrating their commitment to their local communities."

By supporting the Giants, Yarmouth is living its values of supporting community sporting groups. Mr McNeil commented, "Yarmouth recognises and supports the importance of health and wellbeing in the communities in which we operate and we support a range of country and suburban sports clubs in providing resources to their local communities."

Yarmouth has renewed its corporate partnership for another 12 months and Mr McNeil said "Yarmouth will be supporting the Giants for many years to come as we excitedly look forward to the Giants making their official AFL debut in 2012."
