

YARMOUTH ASSISTS SYDNEY LEGACY FOR 2013 COMMUNITY DAY

Sydney, Wednesday 11 December 2013

Andrew McNeil, Managing Director of Sydney-based Yarmouth Group and the Yarmouth team have completed the 2013 Yarmouth Community Day at Sydney Legacy. Yarmouth Community day is an annual company event where Yarmouth staff and their families assist community groups instead of attending Yarmouth offices for the day.

Mr McNeil commented how proud Yarmouth and its staff and partners are in supporting Community Day and Sydney Legacy. "Yarmouth is so excited to be able to assist Sydney Legacy by coming into the Legacy offices in the city and volunteering our time for the day." Yarmouth has had a relationship with Sydney Legacy since Yarmouth was founded and Mr McNeil has known the CEO of Sydney Legacy Mr Andrew Condon for almost a decade.

"We greatly admire how Legacy is dedicated to caring for the families of deceased and incapacitated veterans" commented Mr McNeil. "Community Day is a small way where we can help the more than 5,900 volunteers around Australia who act as Legacy mentors to widows, their families and most importantly the children of recent Australian servicemen and women who have paid the supreme sacrifice serving Australia."

Legacy is a voluntary organisation supported by veterans, servicemen and women and volunteers. Legacy's support and services include the dependants of today's Australian Defence Force who lose their lives as a result of their military service. Legacy enhances the lives and opportunities of Legacy families through innovative and practical programs aimed at protecting individuals and families' basic needs, advocating for their entitlements, rights and benefits, assisting families through bereavement and helping people thrive, despite their adversity and loss.

Mr Condon thanked the Yarmouth team for their assistance and also noted the support of staff from AFL team, the Greater Western Sydney Giants who also took part in Yarmouth Community Day. "We greatly appreciate our corporate volunteers and heartily thank the Yarmouth and GWS Giants teams for helping us around this particularly busy time of Christmas."
