

YARMOUTH SUBSIDIARY BECOMES PFA MEMBER IN 2013

Sydney, Tuesday 29 January 2013

Andrew McNeil, Managing Director of Sydney-based Yarmouth Group has announced today that Yarmouth Investment Management will represent the Yarmouth Group at The Property Funds Association of Australia ('PFA') from 2013. PFA is the peak Australian body representing the interests of its members in the unlisted property investment sector.

Yarmouth Investment Management is the specialist real estate investment management company of the Yarmouth Group and the real estate fund manager of all Yarmouth funds established with Yarmouth Real Estate Securities as trustee. Yarmouth Real Estate Securities holds an Australian Financial Services Licence ('AFSL') 427 666.

During the announcement Mr McNeil, commented: "Over the past twelve months Yarmouth has enhanced its real estate advisory capabilities by establishing Yarmouth Investment Management and by being granted an AFSL by ASIC for our Yarmouth Real Estate Securities business."

Yarmouth Investment Management focusses on developing and managing exclusive real estate funds for wholesale investors including Australian self-managed superannuation funds, Australian and off-shore high-net-worth individuals, pension funds, family offices, institutional investors, insurance companies and sovereign wealth funds.

Mr McNeil said, "Yarmouth Real Estate Securities also provides real estate investment advisory services so that our clients maximise the value of their real estate assets through real estate corporate activity."

"Yarmouth is very proud to be a member of PFA. As a real estate investor and an advisor to real estate investors, we get great value from our association with PFA. Our membership creates opportunities through bringing leading real estate insights to our clients."

ABOUT PROPERTY FUNDS ASSOCIATION OF AUSTRALIA

The Property Funds Association of Australia is the peak body representing the Australian unlisted wholesale and retail property funds sector.

As the professional association for Australian Financial Services licensed (AFSL) property fund managers, their advisors, consultants and representatives, they support and promote investment into unlisted property trusts, funds and syndicates, and assist members in developing and operating their businesses.

PFA's mission is to deliver outstanding service to members, by focusing on three key activities.

- Promoting investment in property based managed investments in Australia by domestic and international investors.
- Representing the interests of our members to governments and regulators to improve the commercial operating environment.
- Developing a unified and powerful professional industry association with strong membership benefits.
